

FAQ's – RECORDED CPD

What is Recorded CPD?

All the SOLICITORS group's Live Telephone CPD sessions are recorded and saved in our back catalogue, customers can then choose as many recordings as they wish to fulfil their CPD requirements.

What are the benefits of recorded CPD?

Practical way of gaining CPD
CD's can be listened to at your own convenience
A selection of recordings can be chosen to suit your whole firm's requirements.

How do I listen to it?

The recordings you choose are put onto a CD and posted to you.

How much is it?

Each recording costs just £20 + vat.

How many CPD points will I get?

Each recording lasts an hour and will therefore accredit you with one CPD point.

How do I keep a record of my points?

You will receive an accreditation form which you and your colleagues will be required to fill in after listening to the recording. We also suggest that you keep your own training record for your own reference.

Will I receive notes with my CD?

A full set of notes will be emailed to you for your reference when listening to the recordings.
