

Denise Lester

Denise Lester is a Solicitor, Partner and family law specialist at the Central London Firm of Moss Beachley Mullem & Coleman . She practices in most aspects of Family Law. She is the Chair of the Law Society's Children Law Sub- Committee. She also is a member of The Law Society's Family and Access to Justice Committee and she is the current President of The West London Law Society.

Denise is a member of The Law Society's Family Law and Children Panels as well as an accredited Specialist of Resolution with portfolios in Private Law, and Domestic Abuse and Abduction. She is the co- general editor of the current edition of The Law Society's Good Practice in Child Care cases. Denise has lectured and has given extensive expert media comment in and outside the UK on issues of English family law.